

Physics of Socio-Economic Systems Division

Monday, March 22, Lecture Hall H44

13:30 - 15:30

FOCUS SESSION ON SCIENCE OF SCIENCE

16:00 - 17:50

YOUNG SCIENTIST AWARD FOR SOCIO- AND ECONOPHYSICS*

I Introductory talk:

Shlomo Havlin (Bar Ilan University)

Tying the double knot: Robustness of interconnected networks

I Awardee's talk:

Dirk Brockmann (Northwestern University)

Unveiling the patterns of human mobility and global disease dynamics

I Afterwards:

Poster session and discussion with
Beer, Pretzels and Leberkäs

* Supported by d-fine www.d-fine.de

March 25, 8:30 - 9:15, Lecture Hall H1

PLENARY TALK

I Albert-László Barabási (Boston)

“Human mobility:

The statistical physics of when and where”